Glenda, You're a sweet girl with a nice personality. We've had some wild times together in Keoda I. Remember all the kicks! And all the chocolate! Good luck now and in the future.

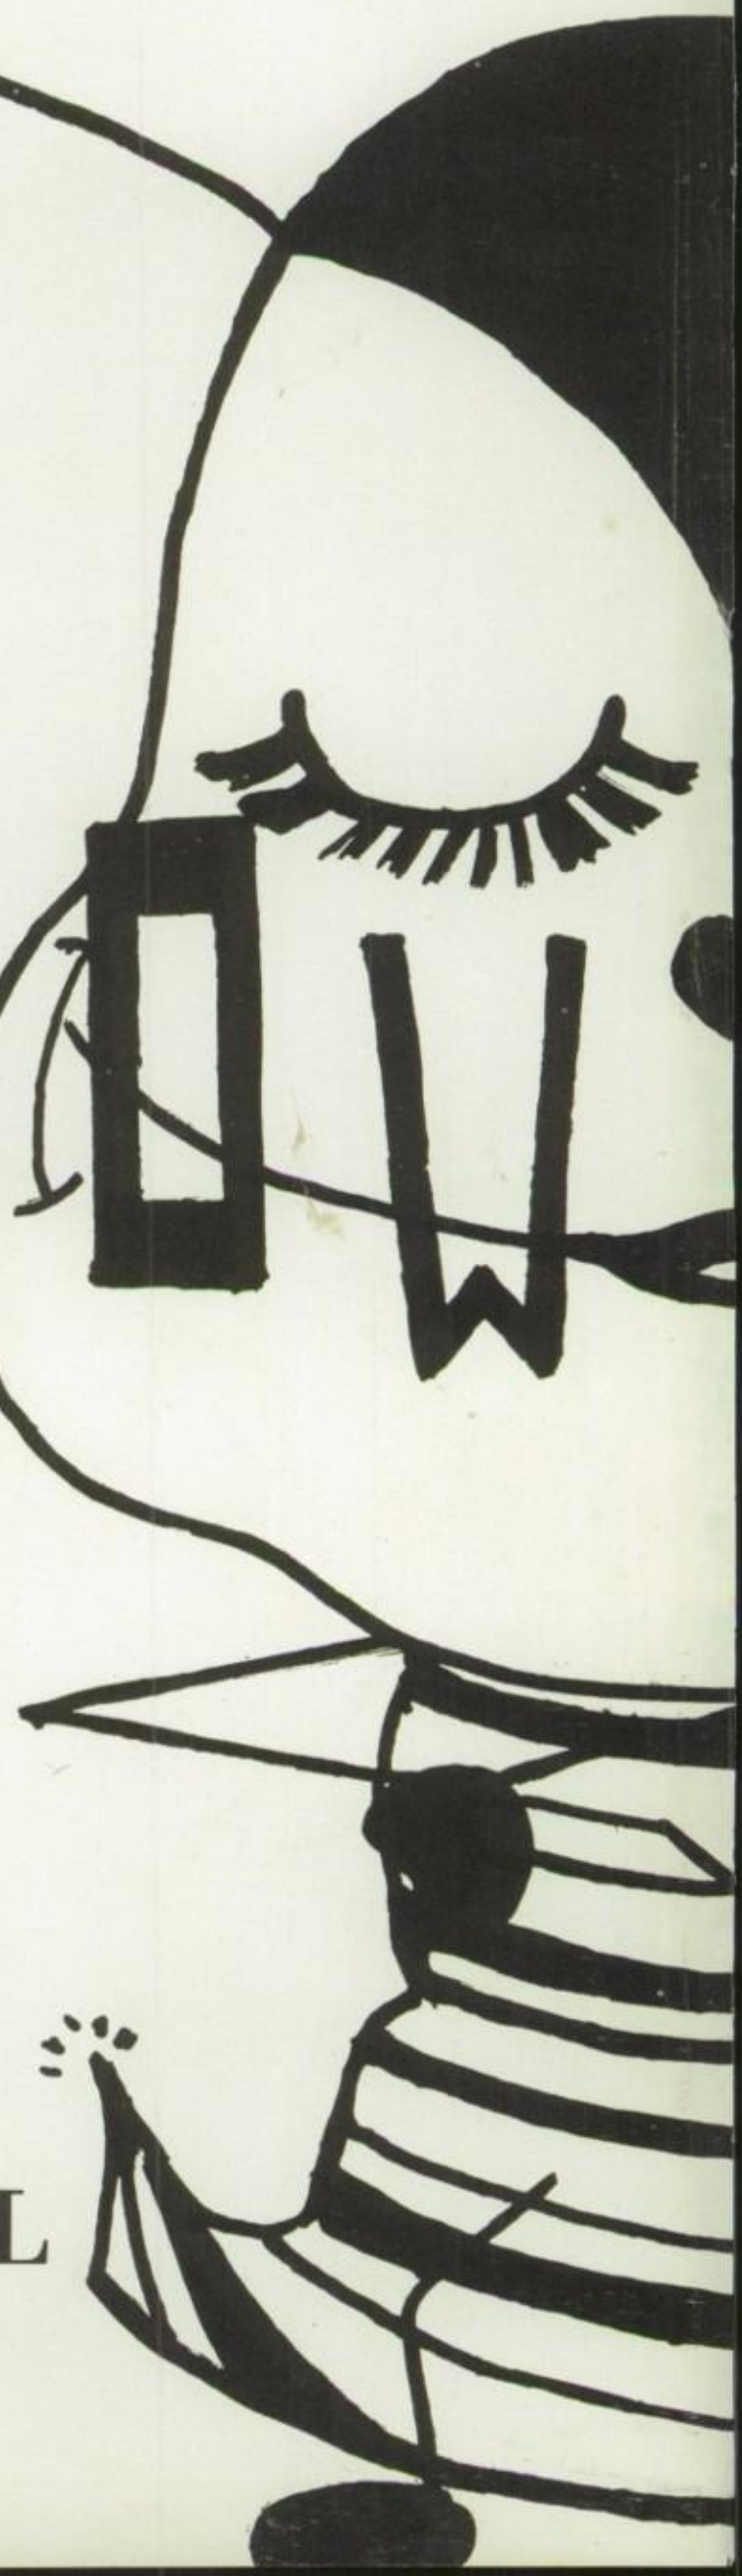
To the Center Yellowjackets' spirited outlook on life while faced with the pressures of today's competitive world, we hereby present this book.

THE YELL



CENTER HIGH SCHOOL

Kansas City, Missouri

JACKET

Pacesetters . . . . . .

Administration, faculty, counseling service, and maintenance crews—whether by supervising school activities or stimulating our awareness of our world and its opportunities, whether by providing a listening ear or merely maintaining a conducive atmosphere to education, each of these groups sets the pace for Center life.

Us . . . . . .

The most important part of a school is the students. We, the Class of '66, the Class of '67 and the Class of '68, supply the alert, witty, questioning, happy, sad, spirited minds which can only be described as us.

C.l.u.b.s. . . . . .

(Center's Loyal United "Bee" Societies)

Each organization through its own program enriches the Centerite in a special way. But although the many clubs diversify the Yellowjackets in one way, in another—by being Center clubs—they unify the student body.

Culture . . . . . .

If not for our splendid Fine Arts department, the schedule at Center would, indeed, be less colorful. There is something to learn in each play presented, each melody sung, each oration delivered, each canvas studied. How wonderful to be able to enjoy them within the walls of our own school!

Goings On . . . . . .

Energy that has been building up in the other areas of school life is finally released in the many activities at Center. From student government to student dances, from learning abroad to learning behind a department store counter, there is something going on for everyone.

Competition . . . . . .

Where else can the fighting Yellowjacket symbol be better represented than on the playing field and in the stands? Football, cross country, basketball, wrestling, and track offer the competitive spirit that is the essence of a proud Centerite.

Guidance

David L. Looney, Director of Guidance

Jeri Schreiber, Guidance Secretary

The Guidance department at Center High serves as a valuable asset to the students.

The purpose of the guidance and counseling service is to help the student help himself by assisting him with schedule conflicts, vocational planning, and educational plans. By helping the student in assessing his abilities, aptitudes, interests, and educational needs, the Guidance department strives to help the student make the best possible use of his opportunities in planning for the future and establishing realistic goals. The Guidance office serves not only as an information center but also as a place where the student can go to receive assistance and understanding with his personal problems.

Through their dedication in striving to aid the students, the guidance and counseling service has become one of the most important centers of our school.

CLASS OF 66

The graduating class of 1966 began their final year with the selection of class rings and a lively steak fry, which featured a new class song. Soon, however, everyone was settling down to study, especially in the senior courses of "trig, psych, and soc." While some English classes discussed G.B.S., others slaved over the native's return, and still others giggled over the lines, "Double, double toil and trouble; Fire burn, and caldron bubble." Worry spread through the class and exclamations of "yuk" could be heard before and after the Ohio Psychological Tests and College Boards. A weekly gathering created victory posters throughout the year. Feelings were mixed as the senior class attended their last prom, embarked on their senior trip, and walked down the graduation aisle climaxing many years of fun and hard work.

This year members participated in a picnic at Loose Park and sponsored French Week.

A bit of Old Spain is brought to Center through the activities of the Spanish Club. Many of their programs center around service to the school and community. Annually, toys and food are collected and taken to the Guadalupe Center at Christmas time. The club is active in the People-to-People program, and it contributes yearly to the American Field Service.

Recreation and culture also play a part in the programs of this club. An annual Spanish Club dinner is held, and a field trip to the Spanish exhibit at the Nelson Art Gallery acquaints the members with the art of Spain.

Latin Club

The Castalians have been organized at Center to provide a means of further study in the classic language, Latin. The group is divided into four sections, each representing a year's study of the language, and as the student progresses in his proficiency, he advances into the next level of the Castalians.

The club's meetings and activities are governed by parliamentary procedure and by the Castalians' motto, "Agē et mosce experientia" (Live and learn by experience). The meetings are held every fourth Friday during class time. Activities are discussed and games are played which have the express purpose of furthering the interest in the Roman culture and by reading from the Latin magazine Auxilium Latinum. The Castalians' major activities for the year are attending a movie with a Roman setting, sending CARE packages to the Vietnamese, giving food and gifts to the Children's Shelter, taking the National Latin Test in March, and sponsoring Latin Week in April.

Center Recreation Association

The Center Recreation Association provides an opportunity for girls to take part in social recreation and shows its members improved skills required to participate in sports with better understanding and ability. The development of its members in modern society is one of the worthwhile ideals followed by the membership of the CRA.

One of the activities of the CRA is the sponsoring of sport days where various area schools send teams to compete in such sports as volleyball, flag football, and basketball. The members, also, participate in horseback riding, swimming, hockey, gymnastics, and other sports. All of their activities are planned with Association goals in mind.

Sponsored by Mr. Rowland Anderson, the Chess Club meets twice a month in an attempt to further the interest of the game of chess.

A vast subject with many facets and interesting sidelines holds the interest of one of the newest clubs at Center. Under the leadership of Mr. Robert Krekel, the History Club is open to all who have a genuine interest in history. Because of its small size and newness, activities were limited this year, but the club hopes to gain more members and to expand its program in the future.

The Future Teachers of America is an organization which acquaints its members with all phases of the teaching profession.

The club participates in many activities and services. One day out of the year members teach classes in their chosen fields in the various schools in the district. The club also goes on a field trip each year and makes an annual contribution to Mercy Hospital at Christmas time. A cake meet is provided for the faculty early each year.

FTA sponsors National Education Week at Center each year with special bulletin board displays and gifts to the teachers. The Lorene Roller scholarship, devised two years ago, is awarded to the senior girl who shows the most promise in the field of teaching.

The 100 Girls Club is sponsored by the American Association of University Women for the purpose of encouraging students of high scholastic promise to continue their education. Membership in the club is made up of the top five girls in the junior and senior classes of ten area high schools.

During the year members participate in teas, luncheons, and trips to area colleges.

Home Economics Club

Many Center girls decided that the Home Economics Club, sponsored by Mrs. Virginia Ray, was the place where they could improve themselves and serve others this year. During the Christmas season the club made felt stockings and delivered them to a nursing home. They also went caroling to spread Christmas cheer. Throughout the year several speakers were invited to speak on varied subjects which were of interest to the girls. The club ended its school year with a picnic.

Ars Medica

Finding a group of intent students gathered around a human skeleton or discussing the possibilities of restoring the human heart after it has once stopped is not an unusual occurrence at Center High School. These students are not up-and-coming Doctor Frankensteins, but merely members of the Center Medical Club. Besides acquainting its members with the various aspects of a medical career, the Medical Club also informs them of the responsibilities and requirements of the medical profession. This club provides information concerning the requirements of admittance into medical schools and gives first-hand glimpses into the activities and responsibilities of persons engaged in medical careers.

The purpose of the Radio Club is to help the members obtain their amateur radio operator licenses and become "hams." To do this, the members must pass a Federal Communications Commission's test consisting of a written examination and the sending and receiving of Morse code. Besides being educational and interesting, the club is fun.

Mr. Robert Pringle, the sponsor, is a licensed "ham" operator and helps the members to operate their own shortwave radio station, WAΦKLY. When conditions are right, the members are able to talk with "ham" operators worldwide.

The club, also, has a practical purpose. During disasters like floods and tornadoes, "hams" broadcast important messages from stricken areas which aids in the rescue of many people. Though their station cannot compete with WHB, Center is proud to have its own radio station!

Philosophy Club

If you think the Philosophy Club is just for eggheads, you're out of your shell! Philosophy helps us all to increase our knowledge and understanding of man and life.

The programs presented by this club include studies of the philosophers of the Eastern and Western world, with special emphasis placed on the ancient philosophers of India, China and Persia. Mrs. Sue Rose Harter, the sponsor, helps the members to get some understanding of the background of some Western attitudes and modern Eastern thinking. They try to relate these philosophic ideas to contemporary events such as Vietnam.

Some of the questions brought up at meetings are bound to interest everyone, as they are questions we all think about at some time, especially at our age of mental maturing. For instance, they discuss "What is good and what is evil?" "What is real?" "What is mind?" and "What is God?"

The programs are presented by guest speakers, Mrs. Harter, and the club members themselves. A discussion period is set aside at each meeting to give the members a chance to express their own opinions. Since each member is encouraged to respect the views and opinions of the others, there is no need to fear criticism.

The Y-Teens' goal: "To grow as a person, to grow in friendship with people of other races, religions, and nationalities and to grow in the knowledge and love of God."

Y-Teens is a club affiliated with the Young Women's Christian Association and is a world-wide organization. During the year the club sponsors various service projects and social events such as collecting for UNICEF and donating money earned from the sale of fruit cake to the Mercy Hospital Fund and holding the annual Y-Teens' slumber party in November.

Each year the Y-Teens sponsor the religious assemblies at Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter.

This year the club enjoyed a series of travel lectures presented by students and members of the faculty.

A rose is a rose is a rose to anyone except the Center High School Art Department—there, it is a bit of grease, some horsehair brushes, and a canvas.

These classes, which are instructed by Mr. Robert Byerley and Mr. Robert Pringle, are a part of the regular curriculum. Art I students work essentially with two dimensions, while Art II students study three dimensions. Students do wire and paper sculpturing, silversmithing, pottery shaping, and silk screening. They also study printing processes and make stage posters for the various school productions. The five Art IV students work with more complicated projects. The art students find special satisfaction in entering contests and exhibitions.

National Forensic League

The National Forensic League has established chapters throughout the country to promote the interests of inter-scholastic debate, oratory, and public speaking. Our NFL Chapter at Center has upheld these standards through their diligent efforts and inspiring performances.

In preparing for a debate, the debaters research their subjects thoroughly and then pit their knowledge, skill, and ability against the opponents'.

Besides attending tournaments in the Kansas City area, the NFL Chapter, also, competes with schools in other states. This year Center has created a most impressive record against their competitors.

"The Miracle Worker"

Opening the season with the production of William Gibson's "The Miracle Worker", the Player's 58 gave a remarkably professional performance of this emotion-packed play. This famous story of Helen Keller's fight to overcome her handicap of being blind, deaf, and dumb presented a challenge to cast and crew alike. Acting problems such as portraying blind girls, playing a scene without breaking character when a chair collapses, and having water thrown in the face during a scene were attacked with relish by the cast. The great volume of props, the fact that no curtains were pulled for scene changes, and the importance of lighting in creating the setting were problems that were met and overcome by the stage crew.

Just as in the professional productions of this play, injuries were numerous. During the fight scene, cuts and bruises were inflicted by flying pitchers, falling chairs, and well-aimed blows. Many barked chins were apparent after exits were made during blackouts, and a few major injuries of sprained wrists and backs also occurred.

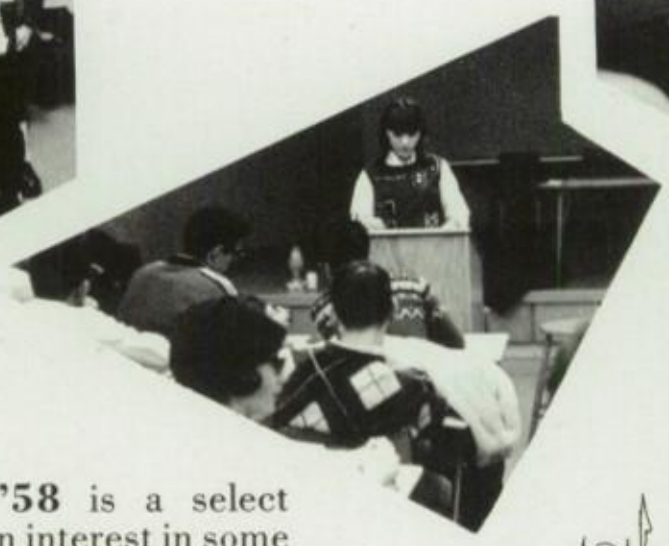
"Hurky" acting, fuchsia sets, vigorous audience participation, and inter-act entertainment were highlights of the Player's 58 production of "Pure as the Driven Snow or The Working Girl's Secret." This old-fashioned melodrama was carried off in high style by the performers. (Anyone connected with the play production will define "hurky" for you.)

As the story opens, Purity Dean wanders into the hotel owned by Jonathan Logan and his wife. Leander Longfellow, a worker at the Pickens' Pickle Factory who lives with the Logans, immediately falls in love with the girl. Then, E. Z. Pickens and his sister Imogene, who thinks Leander loves her, arrive at the hotel. To the accompaniment of hisses and boos, Mortimer Frothingham and his accomplice arrive hot on the trail of Purity and in the possession of a kidnapped baby. Good triumphs over evil in the end, and Mortimer Frothingham is foiled again.

Between the acts the "hurky" mood continued with entertaining solos. The turn-of-the-century atmosphere was enhanced with renditions of "Uncle Tom's Cabin or The Effervescent Evaporation of Eva," "The Hungry Five Plays Old Favorites," "Second-Hand Rose," and "Sweet Sixteen" sung by an off-key quartet.

Players '58



Center's Players '58 is a select group of students with an interest in some facet of the dramatic arts. Every member is required to participate in each major play, contributing at least ten hours of work per semester.

The club's activities include production organization for all major stage performances at Center, providing actors, technicians, business representatives, and house management. Also included in the club's program is attendance at various productions in the area. Each year annual awards are given at a banquet, ten for acting and ten for staging.

Annually, a final picnic —which combines food, swimming, and waterskiing—is held at the home of Mr. Chester Landes.

Bands . . .

Mr. Smith
Director

The Center Band, under the excellent direction of Mr. Claude Smith, had many functions this year. Throughout September, October, and November it functioned as a Marching Band which provided both entertainment and spirit at all home football games. This same band also represented Center quite effectively in the American Royal Parade and at the Kansas University Band Activities.

As the weather grew colder, the Marching Band became the Concert Band. Besides performing for the student body throughout the year, the group participated in district and state music concerts, bringing home many honors.

A select group of the Concert Band became the Stage Band. This band played for many school and community functions.

This year the Center High School Concert Band had the great honor of playing with the Kansas University Brass Choir under the direction of Carl "Doc" Severinson, a staff musician at NBC, in Garrison Auditorium on January 16, 1966. Two of Mr. Smith's own arrangements were played with skill by our band.

American Field Service

"This year has been rich in experience, and when I return to England, I shall take with me memories of many instances of kindness and understanding by the people of America."

The American Field Service is an organization whose main purpose is to create a better understanding among the peoples of the world. It brings foreign students from every part of the world to America for a year of study. They live as a member of an American family for a more complete picture of the American way of life. AFS also sends American students to foreign countries either for a year of study or for a summer of study through the Americans Abroad Program. AFS originated during the First World War by a volunteer ambulance corps. It has now grown into a worldwide organization.

The AFS selects its exchange students through a series of forms and personal interviews. Qualities demanded in an exchange student are those of open-mindedness, friendliness, and the ability to adjust and get along with those different from oneself. The students are impressed with the idea that there is more than one correct way to act and think.

The motto of the AFS is "Walk together, talk together, all ye peoples of the earth. Then and only then shall ye find peace!"

"Even though I missed the hustle and bustle of America, the big cars and fast pace of life, I loved everything about my summer. The pretty English countryside, the friendly outgoing people, the warm hospitality made me grow to love and admire England. Though I love America deeply, I feel I must and will return to England someday."

Student Council

The Student Council is one of the most important organizations at Center. The members compose the governmental institution which represents the entire student body. Eight members from each class, the foreign exchange student, and the runner-up in the presidential election of the previous year make up the Council. They are instrumental in planning and organizing many school activities, including the Sno-Ball Dance and the Bee-hive Dances.

To cope with problems of the student body that occur during the year, the Student Council has set up various projects, including the sponsoring of a suggestion box in the office, the enhancing of the Center Seal in the front hall, and the presenting of other entertaining and stimulating programs.

In its second year, the Key Club has become a well-respected organization at Center. It is boy's honorary organization, and its members are chosen for their high character, integrity, and service to their school and community.

Affiliated with the Kiwanis Club, the Key Club has many varied activities. Besides serving the school as ushers at games, they participate in many aspects of school life. Community service, also, plays an important part in the activities of the Key Club. The members attempt to help those who are underprivileged or in need. Mr. E. J. Wills is the sponsor.

On September 24th, Mr. Kenneth West, president of the Center School Board, dedicated Center's new athletic stadium. The stadium was built at a cost of $250,000 and has a seating capacity of 3,200. Outstanding features of the new stadium include a pumice track, an excellent lighting system, and underground sprinklers. Center played Northtown in its first game in the stadium and defeated them 33-0.

Center vs. Southwest

In the opening game of the season Center defeated Southwest 19-6. In the first quarter neither team scored. However, with 1:30 left in the first half, Gary Bunton scored for Center, and Scott Trumbull's kick was blocked. Center's second touchdown was scored by Bob Brown on a three yard run. The kick was good, and Center led 13-0. Bunton scored for Center in the fourth quarter to give us a 19-0 lead. Southwest scored late in the fourth quarter, but the kick failed. Bunton contributed 103 yards to Center's total of 251 yards rushing.

With his return next year, along with Vince Ragmalia, Center has a very promising team.

Although Center's record was 10-16, records do not show everything. Center almost upset four of the top-rated teams in the city. In each case the 'Jackets lost the games in the final seconds. The Yellowjackets lost 5 games by 3 or less points. Center finished fourth in a tough Suburban Eight Conference. The 'Jackets took third in the Pem Day Tournament and fifth in the Center Tournament. Although the team suffered a losing season, their spirit and drive never died. Both the coaches and players deserve congratulations on the determination that marked this season.

Although only in its second year, Center's wrestling team grappled its way to a perfect season. With a regular season record of 15-0, Center was the only undefeated team in the city. First place honors in both the Ruskin and Conference Tournaments went to Center. Coach Noel Martin's team took third place in the district, sent five wrestlers to sub-state, and was represented by three wrestlers in the state meet. Tom Hyde and Elton Norman took fifth place in the Missouri finals within their respective weight classes.

Our congratulations to Coach Martin for his fine work in taking a second-year team to state and to the wrestlers themselves who often received little support for their outstanding effort.

"Annie Get Your Gun"

Although "Annie Get Your Gun" has had thousands of performances on Broadway and in London, its three most unforgetable performances were presented on May 4, 5, and 6th, 1966, in Garrison Auditorium at Center Senior High School.

This Rodgers and Hammerstein production was directed by three members of Center's energetic faculty. Stage direction was handled by Mr. Chester Landes, while Mr. John Chronister was in charge of vocal music. Mr. Claude Smith directed the orchestra and coordinating production. Other members of the faculty also assisted in the musical. Setting was controlled by Mr. Robert Pringle and Mr. Robert Byerly. Mr. Duncan Ray supervised construction of the stage set and was aided by several members of the student body. Make-up and costumes were handled by Mrs. Nancy Scott and Mrs. Shirley Foster, respectively.

"Annie Get Your Gun" is the story of Annie Oakley and her three smaller sisters and brother. Annie Oakley is a country gal who knows what a gun is. When she meets the world-famed and handsome Frank Butler, she becomes a dazzled-eyed young girl in love. After Annie learns that "You Can't Get a Man With a Gun," her problems disappear, and she and Frank proclaim that "There's No Business Like Show Business."

GOINGS ON

April Fool's Follies

At the beginning of April, the Student Council sponsored a shindig talent assembly. Pupils filed into Garrison Auditorium to the music of an ancient harpsichord. Quickly thrown out, this was replaced by a stage full of gyrating girls in mini-skirts and knee-socks. Act after act came on—and left with thunderous applause.

Above: The Tradewind Trio, composed of T. O'Rourke, D. Black, and J. Jones, sang Civil War ballads.

Right: The Checkmates provided most of the background music for the April Fool's Follies. The group is composed of G. Goodwin, D. Wilson and B. Bureman.

Below: K. Bowen and B. Bureman talked and sang about "The Good Old Days."

Above: Sonny and Cher were mimicked by K. Meyer and B. Brown to the accompaniment of the Chesmann.

Below: The Puss 'n Boots quartet, in the persons of J. Heimbach, B. Abernethy, P. Raw, and N. Evans, showed that their boots were made for walking.

A Taste of Honey

Miss Connie Porterfield and Mr. Josh Brier began their duties as Yellowjacket Queen and King by ruling over the 1966 dance, "A Taste of Honey." Attending Connie on this spring night were Jeanne Smith, and Jeannette Heimbach. Attendants for Josh were Jim Neustadt and Bill Steinbrecher. Entertainment for the evening was provided by the Classmen.

Evening in Venice

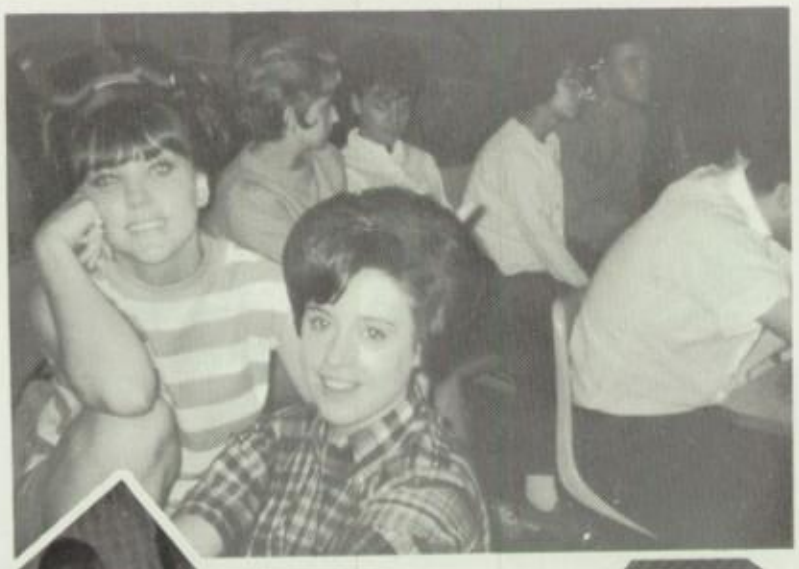
The romance of Venetian canals, star-lit skys, and fountains provided the perfect setting for the biggest and most important social event of the year—the Junior-Senior Prom. Lovely girls in formals and long white gloves were escorted over the canal walk-ways by handsome tuxedoed young men. It was hard to realize that the gondolas were gliding in the halls of CHS and not Venice.

Continental music was provided by the Tony Di Pardo band as couples danced in the ballroom, strolled on the moonlit patio, or chatted with friends who had been transformed from typical teenagers to sophisticated young men and women.

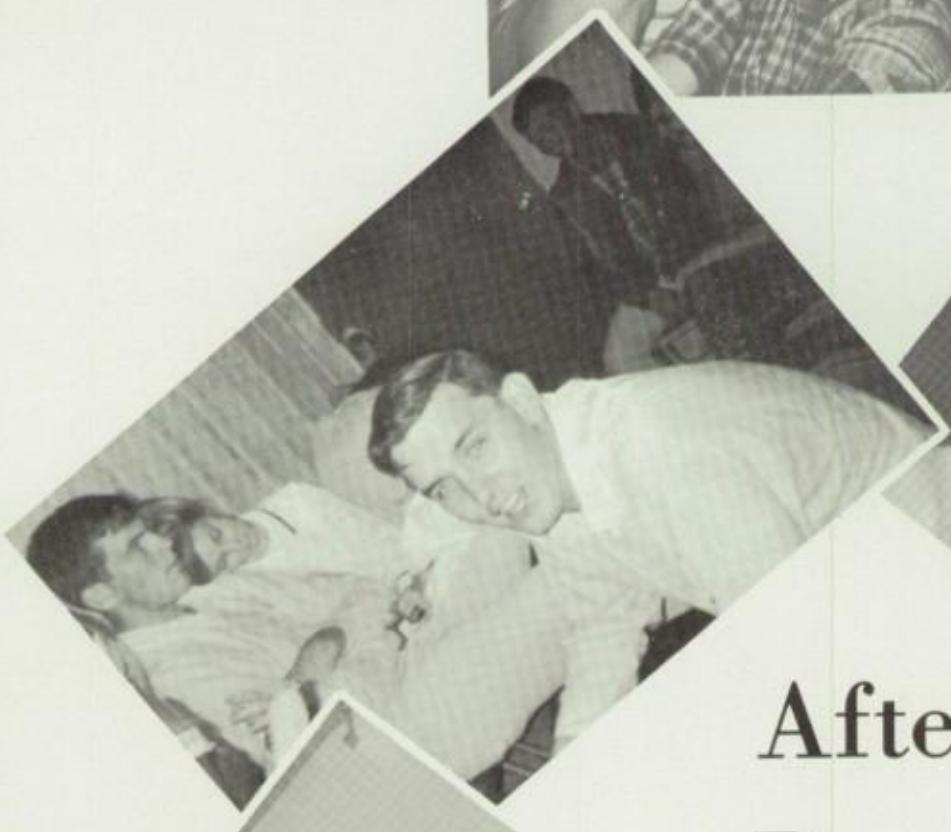
Junior-Senior Prom

After Prom

The gondolas swept everyone home at midnight—Prom was over . . . but the evening had just begun! The beautiful formals and the handsome tuxedos transformed back into shorts, "cut-offs," and Keds, then back to the action...



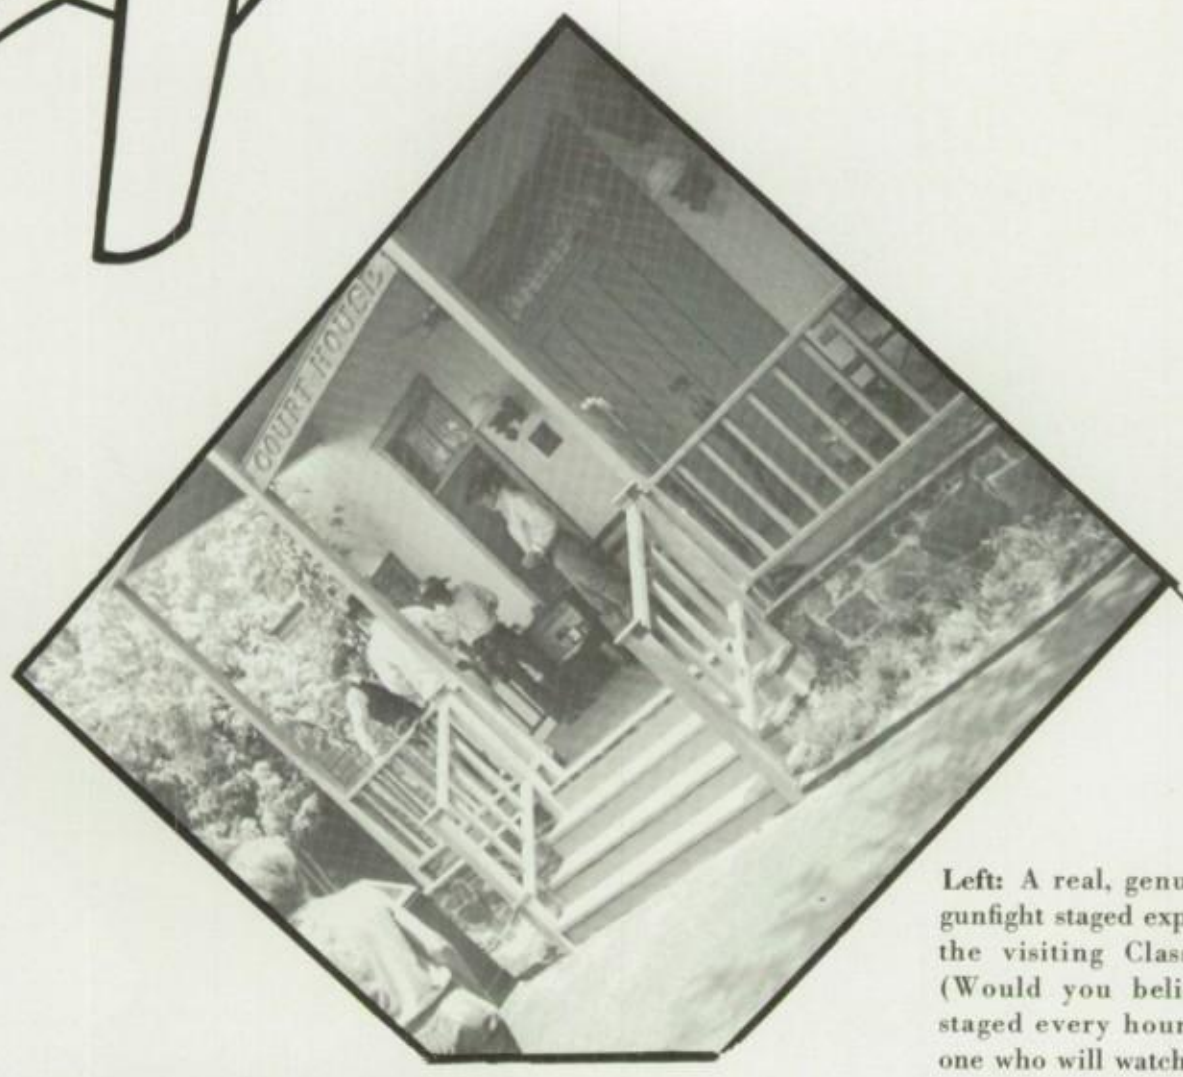
. . . this time at the King Louie East Lanes. The entire building had been rented for the After-Prom activities from one to three in the morning. Dividing up, Prom-goers chose between bowling, pool and the snack bar. The clock struck three, and it was off again...



. . . to the Terrace Room at the Ward Parkway Center. The Chesmann provided a good beat for several hours of foot-stompin' and hip-swingin'. Any eyes that had begun to droop quickly popped open at this wild sock-hop. Finally . . .

. . . the planned activities ended. Several couples went out to watch the sunrise; others breakfasted at neighborhood restaurants. Within an hour or two all were home for a twenty-four hour sleep.

Senior Trip



Left: A real, genuine, fake gunfight staged expressly for the visiting Class of '66. (Would you believe it is staged every hour for anyone who will watch?)

Left: A few of the eighty seniors who made the marvy trip. You will notice Bob Corbett ably directing Sterling Farber in accepted "hanky panky" procedures to the amusement of fellow classmates.

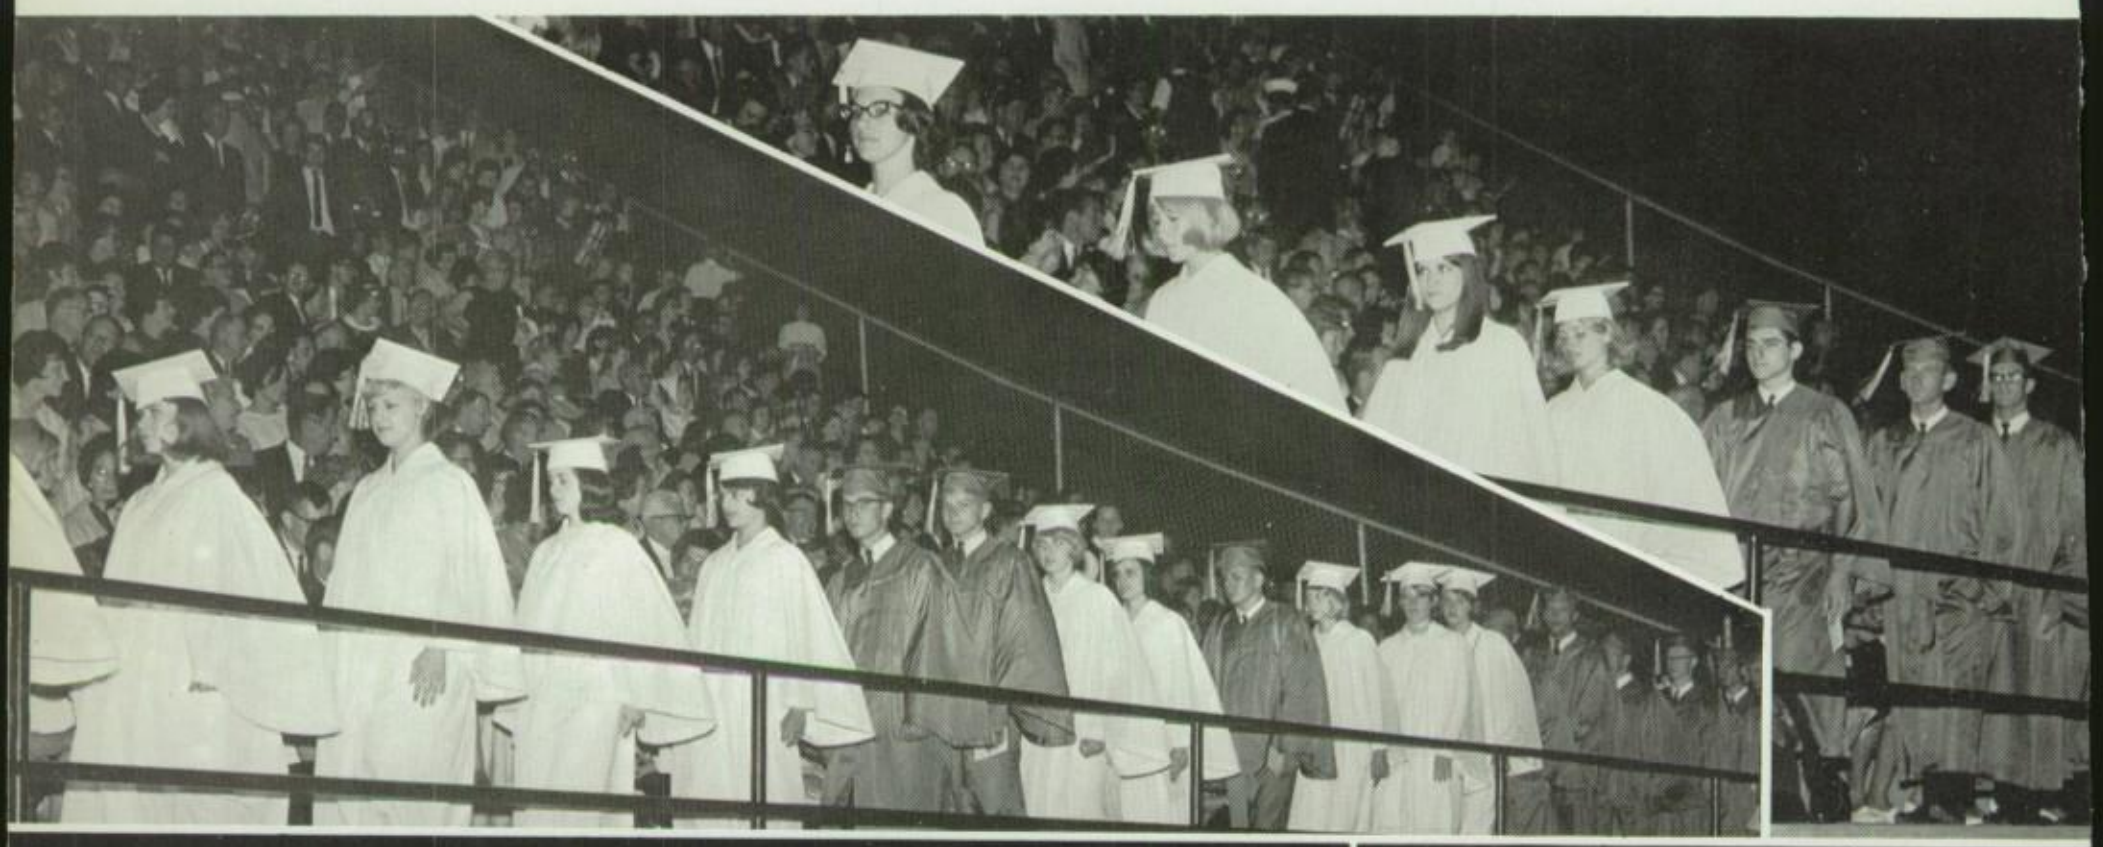
The Class of 1966 Is



The strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" floated over the stadium as the 316 members of Center's Class of 1966 marched to their places. Thousands of friends and relatives were already in the stands to witness the commencement exercises, one of the most important events in a person's life. After Dr. Robert Craft's invocation, the class and the guests were seated as Dr. Leroy Barrows, Superintendent of Schools, introduced the speaker. This year's commencement address was given by Dr. Herbert Schooling, Dean of Faculties at M.U. Following his address, the senior gift was presented and special awards were announced by Mr. Carl Fowler, Principal.

The senior class then filed down from the stadium to receive their diplomas from Mr. Kenneth West, Board of Education President, as Mr. Wilbur McGraw read the roll. As the choir lead the seniors in singing "Center's Alma Mater," feelings of sadness mingled with accomplishment while tears mingled with smiles.
